

CONTENTS

Horses in need of homes

At 120 head, it's one of the largest herds of Indian ponies on the Fort Belknap Reservation. Rancher and Big Flat Electric trustee Patty Quisno wants to downsize. And she'd rather see one in your corral than sold on the open market, which often spells c-a-n-n-e-r-y. Not that you could saddle up and ride away into the sunset. What you need to know if you'd like to take one of these unbroken beauties home.

8

7

Tour your Capitol

It's yours, Montana. You must visit. No telling what celebrities you'll meet. Jag here is the First Dog. A picture tour.

10

Legislative social graces

Cooperatives take their issues to Helena and talk shop at the co-op sponsored Legislative Dinner and Dance.

11

Legislative update III

What's been going on in the Montana Legislature that might affect your electric bill? What's to come? Third in the series.

DEPARTMENTS

1 Viewpoint

15 Calendar

2 The Face of Montana

16 Young Montanans

12 Dateline, D.C.

16 Coming Up

14 Recipes

End Of the Line

About our cover ...

They say that if you want to capture attention in your photographs, take a picture of a beauty, a beast or a baby. In Montana, horses and babies can cover all three categories. Like this little band of beauties next to I-15 near Brady.

Photos by James V. Smith, Jr.